Cactus is an independently owned, proudly Canadian company with boutique appeal and global reach. Our studio is located in Toronto, where we've come together to build a refreshing interdisciplinary design firm that offers a highly innovative approach to creative projects, large and small.

Cactus is finely tuned to craft intelligent, creative solutions for clients who understand how powerful great design can and should be. Our multi-disciplinary team also enables us to offer the opportunity to integrate services across a complete design spectrum. We're sharp... Not pricks.

Design is not just what it looks like and feels like.

Design is how it works.
